

Roman Lyach – CV

Personal information

Name: Roman Lyach
Date of birth: 13. 01. 1989
Address: Milady Horákové 9, 251 01, Říčany, the Czech Republic
Email: roman.lyach@natur.cuni.cz, lyachr@seznam.cz

Education

2014–today: Doctoral studies on Institute for Environmental studies, Faculty of Science, Charles University in Prague
2011–2014: MSc studies in Ecology and Environmental protection on Faculty of Science, Charles University in Prague
2008–2011: Bc. studies in Ecology and Environmental protection on Faculty of Science, Charles University in Prague
2001–2008: Public high school in Říčany near Prague

Bachelor thesis

Chances of survival of stocked fish in the wild

Diploma thesis

Diet of Eurasian otter Lutra lutra in response to salmonid stocking

Doctoral studies

The role of fish-eating predators and socio-economic trends in recreational fishing

Conferences

Active participation with a speech – Zoological days (2015, 2017, 2018), Post Graduate Student Conference (2014, 2015, 2016, 2017), Agency for Landscape Protection Conference (2016), Conference on Ornithology (2016), Fresh Blood for Freshwater (2017)

Memberships

IUCN Otter Specialist group

Grants

The Josef Hlávka Foundation – conference travelling grant (three awards)
GA UK – the Charles University Grant Agency grant (No. 112 218)

Other activities

University lecturing, lectures for public, supervising exams, consultations for students, drafting of grant proposals

Language skills

Czech (native speaker), English (advanced, C2), German (basic, A2), Latin (passive)

Technical skills

MS Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint), statistical programmes (R, Statistica, SPSS)